of Malenkov, Beria and Bulganin would hold the power. Time proved his observation to be correct.

He further declared, "Watch for the name of Nikita Khrushchev—he is scheduled to be the head of the Russian Communist Party, succeeding to the post held by Malenkov." This prediction became history during the year.

Since retiring from active business in 1940, Alber has spoken in many parts of the English-speaking world and has addressed more than twenty-five thousand audiences.

Alber had been previously scheduled to appear Jan. 30, but was called to Washington, D. C., to speak with Secretary John Foster Dulles. All students and members of the staff may purchase tickets from the Treasurer's Office for 50 cents.

HIKE RATES $27.50 PER YEAR

After Tuition Rise, Wartburg Costs Still Low In Study

By Jean Mass
TRUMPET Feature Writer

"Considering the $50 parish scholarship ship to all students from American Lutheran Church congregations, a $50 scholarship to Bremer County students and the inclusion of fees in tuition, Wartburg will next year have the second lowest rate of seven schools studied," Pres. C. H. Becker summarizes a recent survey.

Increase Regents Act
By Act of the Board of Regents, Wartburg College will increase its tuition rates $27.50 for the coming school year. Costs of housing and food service will be kept at the current level.

A committee was appointed by President Becker to make a detailed survey of costs paid by students in other colleges at the time of registration. Members of the committee were H. C. Engelbrecht, business manager; Edward G. Clegg, head of students; and Miss Eldora Flugge, treasurer.

Activity Fees Included

Tuition at Wartburg will include $25 a semester for activities fees. These fees will be paid to the Wartburg College Foundation, College Health Service, subscriptions to TRUMPET, Fortress and Castle Tales, rental of post office box, use of library and gymnasium, admission to all games and contests, lyceum and lecture programs, music events, dramatic productions, and various social activities.

Parish scholarships of $50 are awarded to students who are members of an ALC congregation. Students from Bremer County also receive a $50 scholarship.

Tuition and fees when the student will pay upon entering college will total $210.50.

Over ninety per cent of the students will actually pay only $185.50, because of the scholarships.

Actual rates when tuition and parish scholarships are taken into consideration at Concordia, Moorhead, St. Olaf, Luther, Segun, New Ulm, St. Olaf, Storm Lake, Central Pella, Luther, Decatur, and University of Dubuque, Dubuque, following:

Enjoy Pinnacle But Keep Out Of Clouds

Mountain top experiences. Among Wartburg College students, this is a fairly common and often overworked term. Spiritual Emphasis Week is frequently referred to in this manner.

However, far too many people fail to analyze this mountain to which they refer. The top of a mountain is the high point—the pinnacle. The summit air is rare and the view is invigorating.

The only trouble is that a person gets to the top. He has no place else to go—except down. Furthermore, it's much easier to go down than up, and the speed of the descent may be disastrous.

Now, look at the week that has just passed. Substantial numbers of the student body placed the combination of lectures, informal discussions and chaplains in this upper realm. Where are you going from there?

Now is the normal time for the average person to gradually start complaining about religious indigestion. He's had the rare air and the invigorating view—but he finds out he can't live on dessert alone and soon gets sick of the whole idea. Evidently, this person started down from his pinnacle too fast and ran off a precipice.

Spiritual growth can never be on a straight line always pointing higher. Christian growth is a spasmodic affair. No one can avoid a series of rises and falls. Odd as it may seem, we don't grow much when we're on the pinnacles.

For some reason, the top is too pleasant . . . and the real growth is a painful process. Growth comes in the valleys of life. Here you face reality—reality that has been stripped of the glamour and the fancy trimmings.

Réality slaps us around and the punches aren't cushioned. However, if one survives the battle, he's a stronger man with a great deal more insight than existed before.

Why all this psychology? Simply this. Right now many Wartburg students are at one of these spiritual pinnacles. Don't kid yourself into thinking you're going to be able to live on that point forever.

Don't try stepping off on a cloud. Keep your feet on the ground or you'll be in for a big fall. That mountain top is liable to come crashing down and crush you.

Agriculture Plows Malenkov Under

Graveling by the only last week and now another Russian has cast his shadow upon the Moscow scene and gone back into his hole, but perhaps his stay will be longer than the traditional six weeks.

Premier Georgi Malenkov resigned this week because he was considered of insufficient ability in handling internal affairs, especially the agricultural program.

The public had been given some information of it when Nikita Khrushchev recently addressed the central Committee of the U.S.S.R. on the activities of the president and his plan.

Khrushchev severely criticized the farm management and the lack of heavy industry. This, he asserted, was a deviation from the Leninistic policy and should be immediately rectified.

The deviation from standard policy can be traced to Malenkov's original promises to the Russian people of more light industry for consumer goods.

This removal was not in the grand old style. The transgressor was present at his confession and at the assembly where Marshall Bulganin was nominated to take his place. The Marshall was nominated by one of the real powers in Russia, Khrushchev, and only 10 days earlier he had been removed.

Replacing this is the famous Stalin-way of ridding the regime of a hero. First remove the man from his post with some semblance of honor, put him in the back seat of a limousine and let him sink from the public's sight.

Malenkov has never been a real terror in the Soviet Union. He was a substitute premier until a few weeks ago. He was a good man, but not the man that man but another compromise premier for the mutual satisfaction of Khrushchev and Molotov.

He may be used as a scapegoat for future Russian misdeeds, but that is not likely. The change in leadership betrays Russian failures.

Although Russia has been persistently exporting food, its satellites to supplement their food production, many Russians have gone hungry.

The marginal lands in Russia are the object of a great effort to increase production, but may not succeed. These lands have a short growing season and of limited fertility.

Food imports method of feeding Russian millions must be found. The leaders are casting about for help and you for some hope and blaming the next fellow for any misadventures.

Hardwood Artists Tally 44 In 2nd Half,
Revenge Beaver Defeat, Frigid Opening

By Dale Kopits

TRUMPET Sports Writer

Wartburg's Knights continued their drive for the Iowa Conference title last night as they rolled over Buena Vista 72-55 in a tilt played in Knights Gymnasium.

After a frigid first half, the Artists came back strong, scoring 44 points in the second stanza to avenge a previous defeat at the hands of the Beavers.

With the game less than a minute old, the Knights got off to a jump shot to give Wartburg a 20 lead. The Beavers weren't to be denied, however, as they came back to tie or lead several times in the game.

Knights Grow Cold

The Knights, leading at one time in the first half by a 10-11 score, grew cold in the second, allowing the Beavers to within one point before Midgaard hit on a 25-foot set shot. Bob Adix had his first points of the game with two free throws, the game with two more when he dumped in a bucket and two free throws to give Wartburg a 28-25 advantage at the half.

Ripping the nets with a bucket and 7 of 8 charity tosses, the Beavers raced back to take a 43-42 lead. The Knights made up the difference of the second half. With the score tied 34 all, Bob Adix fired in five points in a row to give the Knights a 39-34 lead which they never relinquished.

Ax Substitutes Freely

Substituting freely, Coach Ax brought in his second men as the Knights continued their second half surge. Forward John Adix played a good defensive game, coming up with important interceptions and rebounds.

John Adix tollies two.

Norsemen Meet Knights Here Tuesday

By Bob Losie

TRUMPET Sports Writer

The name Adix will have a familiar ring to the Luther Norsemen when they face Wartburg's conference leaders in Knights Gym here this Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Big Bob Adix accounted for 29 of the points racked up against Luther as it was defeated on its own home floor last month, 74-65.

'52 Team Edges Norsemen

The '52 squad, last Wartburg team to win a conference title, barely edged by the Norsemen, 82-79. It was only the second time in 14 years that the '52 team had won 14 of the actor's points. In the second encounter of that year, Adix marked up 16 points as the boys from Decorah again tasted defeat, 67-58.

The following year, the Knights first beat the Norsemen, 78-75, and then avenged themselves, 83-82, as the familiar name of Adix again rang out to add 33 points worth of Norse sorrow.

Luther Wins in '54

But '54 was Luther's year as it first defeated the Knights, 67-62, and then won the conference title in the '55 season, 78-75. Wartburg's slim chance for a title share as it clinched the conference laurels in '56, 69-51.

Although realizing no chance to capture last year's title, Luther did not let down in pulling rival Wartburg into second place. The Knights cannot afford to lose another conference game to the Norsemen, as the '57 race for second place Central in the win department and tied in losses of two pieces.

Chief trouble-maker in last month's game was Hallie Winter, who was a 20-tallied Dick Chackiewicz, pesky Luther guard, contributed 11 points to the futile cause. Other Norsemen expected to do their best were Jim Spicuzza, Jack Winter, Bob Dale, Shorty Schroeder and Pete Holland.

Knight Matmen Play Host To Grinnellians After Splitting Pair With Coe, Dubuque

By John Polk

TRUMPET Sports Writer

Grinnell matmen will match the opposition to Jomen forces when they invade the Knights Gym at 2 p.m. today.

After winning last Saturday's match from Coe 24-8, the grapplers went down in defeat at the hands of Dubuque 24-12.

Inexperience was the main factor in Tuesday's meet as three Knights went down via the decision route, losing their matches by six, seven and 14 points.

Only Paul Reyley and Arnie Brandt were able to salvage points. Brandt, who was wrestling in his first match in his career, not only gave up a height advantage but also 62 pounds in winning his decision 5-2. Reyley, his opponent, 49, in the 167-pound class.

"Today's meet should be a toss up," commented Coach Norm Jansen. Grinnell was more expert, however, with 11 wins, 10 losses, their meet score and ours with 5-2. Reyley and Brandt will be the 167 and 177-pound class.

Starting in the 123-pound class with Paul Denehy, the Knights must find that one end handily as seven pound divisions will be filled by Dan Stufflebeam and Gerald Meyer. Gerry Lengelund and Jim Axelson will be the 133 and 143-pound slants, while Paul Reyley and Arnie Brandt will take over the chores at 167 and 177 pounds.

Heavyweight division will be filled by either Tom Glidewell or Dick Schenke.

At Margheim followed Adix in the scoring column, tossing 16 markers. Jim Reid led the losers at the hook with 22 points.

The Axmen whopped Central College by 13 points Saturday night in the 123-pound class at Pella. The win showed the Knights into the conference lead.

Shooting a remarkable field goal percentage of 49 per cent, the Hatchet crew sliced out a 44-28 Hatchet lead, leading to a 13-13 tie. The 13 free attempts helped the Knights to keep the Dutchmen off balance.

ENDING SPIRITUAL WEEK

Dr. Wolf Stresses Importance Of Love

By Marsch Artart

TRUMPET Feature Writer

"Love is one of the most important words in our lives and in our religion—yet this word often goes undefined," stated Dr. C. Uman Wolf at Thursday's Spiritual Emphasis Convocation.

Interpreting this into this address, Wolf brought out various points of what love is and what love is not. He said that love is parental and consumable, loves and endures all things, while love does not deny, insist on its own way or is not resentful.

Stating that a continual growing together is the basis of a good marriage but in community life, politics and international relationship, Dr. Wolf concluded by saying that what we really need is the nature of a Christian.

Love Braves Truth

Love believes the truth about God and fellowmen and loves never enough. "What then is love but self-giving love?"

Wednesday, Dr. Wolf spoke on "What Did Christ Do Anyway?" He said we must remember that Jesus Christ was not the founder of Christianity but that a new religion was founded because of Him.

Victory Gives Grace

Wolf said that we, through Christ, will be victorious over all disease—"not instead of lust and wealth of spiritual blessing instead of wrath of eternal God."

Speaking at the first convocation of Spiritual Emphasis Week, Dr. Wolf's topic was "What Is Man?" He pointed out that we are sons of God, created in the image of God; but also we are sinners in the flesh. The congregation for giveness of God.

Young People Too Busy

Typing in the phrase "either too young or too old," Dr. Wolf said that young people today often think they are too busy to be servants of God and frequently try denying the service to God until they are older.

He stated that Spiritual Emphasis Week is a time to change emotion to motion, activity to action and for us to become sons of God with a renewed strength.
